

Oilers stalled by Bucs

Defense shines; offense sputters

By Bob Whitney

Wicked Local Randolph

Posted Jul 26, 2011 @ 10:59 AM

Linebacker Colby Gallagher anchors the Oilers defense against Bay State Bucs.

Randolph —

The Randolph Oilers dropped another disappointing decision, falling 13-0, last Friday evening to the Bay State Bucs at Bridgewater-Raynham High School. The Oilers are now 1-3 in the Eastern Football League. The defense once again had an outstanding game limiting the Bucs offense to only 13 points. Tim Millerick, Colby Gallagher, Karl Wells and Mike Eshner led the Oilers solid defensive effort.

Offensively the Oilers were plagued by a few costly mistakes and untimely turnovers. “I did not have a good game,” admitted Oilers quarterback Ryan Myers. “In addition, the Bucs have the best defensive line in the EFL.” The Oilers have a week off from EFL action and will next return to play on August 6 against the unbeaten Middleboro Cobras. Game time at Battis Field in Middleboro is 7 p.m.

Copyright 2011 Randolph Herald. Some rights reserved

Karl Wells and Mike Eshner stop Bay State Bucs running back for a loss.

Read more: Oilers stalled by Bucs - Randolph, MA - Randolph Herald

<http://www.wickedlocal.com/randolph/archive/x1684324857/Oilers-stalled-by-Bucs#ixzz1Vzxf9Zha>